

Toiletry Kit For Today's Modern Cowboy

Head Out is dedicated to providing you with the very finest in men's toiletries. We believe that every man has a bit or a lot of cowboy in them, and that none should suffer the painful effects of walking around smelling like a flower, a piece of fruit, or a pile of road apples. You deserve a product that will keep you looking sharp, ready to ride that bucking bronco, and feel as refreshed as drinking a tall glass of water.

There's a cowboy in every modern man. Save the horse and travel light with just the essentials in this handy toiletry kit. HEAD OUT Men's Toiletry Kit comes in a genuine leather bag with waterproof top pouch and a separate lower compartment to store other essentials. Perfect for the gym, travel, and even roughing it under the stars. Kit includes 2 in 1 shampoo, bandana, shoe polish, lip balm, soap, lotion, toothpaste, deodorant, shaving cream, and a small first aid kit.
